

October 30, 2016– Feast of Christ the King

From the Pastor

Welcome to the New Home of Regina Caeli Parish

We appreciate the effort it takes to find and attend the Traditional Latin Mass and we are grateful to all who have come in support of the blessing and opening of St. Athanasius Chapel Hall. May God reward you.

For those who are attending the Traditional Latin Mass for the first time, welcome. The missal provided at the entrance to the sanctuary will help you follow the Mass, which is similar in overall structure to the more familiar Novus Ordo. If you get lost, look towards the priest and the altar, and let your heart absorb what may overwhelm your mind. Please do not get discouraged. In time, you will come to see why the Traditional Mass is often called the “most beautiful thing this side of Heaven.”

If you are returning to the Traditional Mass after many years, welcome back. May you find peace and joy at re-discovering the Mass in the Extraordinary Form.

And if you have been with us from the beginning or joined us as we grew, thank you. You have laid the foundation for current and future generations to embrace the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and all the sacraments in the Traditional rites.

May God bless you all.

Sincerely in Christ,

Rev. Charles Van Vliet, FSSP

Communion of the Faithful

The reception of Holy Communion is a sign that the communicant accepts and believes all that the Roman Catholic Church holds and teaches.

Those who receive should:

- 1) be baptized Catholics in full communion and in good standing with the Church;
- 2) be in a state of sanctifying grace (i.e., not conscious of any mortal sin);
- 3) have fasted at least one hour before receiving the Sacrament.

In the Traditional rite, the communicant receives the Sacred Host on the tongue while kneeling. The “Amen” is said by the priest, not the communicant.
